Fake tech support call scam – Supportonclick, systemrecure and logmein123.com

Are you on a call with “tech support” from comantra, unifyinfocom, supportonclick, thenerdsupport, securesecurityinfotech, thesupportonline, go4isecure, thesparksupport, winpctech, compstep, ordinateurassist, advpccare, techisonline, techonsupport, fixonclick, Log4Rescue, PCTechnosupport, onlinepccare, teamviewer or pccare while reading this?

PLEASE TRY AND RECORD THE CALL, and whether you can or can't record it, please try and get as much of the following information as you can:

- Do they know your name and address? Ask: “Who was it you wanted to speak to?”
- If so, are you in the phone book under that name and address?
- Are they using a particular name that's only on your credit card?
- Have you recently contacted your broadband provider or telephone provider?
- And if so, which company was it?
- Is there any other computer based transaction, repair, purchase or enquiry you made online or instore recently, and can you remember where it was?
